ANNUAL REPORT of EUROPEAN SOCIETY of VETERINARY DERMATOLOGY
No. 10, September 1995

EDITOR: Richard G Harvey, BVSC, DVD, Dip. ECVD, MiBiol, MRCVS, Vice-President, ESVD

EDITOR'S REMARKS

Welcome to the 10th Annual Report of the ESVD. As before, this publication primarily serves as a repository for member's names and addresses, although there are informal annual reports from some of the National dermatological groups, in addition to the Treasurer's report and the literature base. Note that member's telephone and fax numbers are now prevalent. I think it is time that e-mail numbers were listed also, where available. Electronic mail, and the Internet, are part of the lives of those who work in academic or research institutions and are now becoming an everyday part in communicating in the world at large.

The European Society of Veterinary Dermatology has two presences in the virtual world, the ESVD Bulletin Board and, within the Professionals Forum, on Compuserve. Furthermore, many universities, within Europe and the United States and Canada have home pages on the World Wide Web, which convey interactive, graphical interfaces and colour pictures. This new electronic medium is perfect for dispersing clinical data and will become more and more important as a means of rapid communication. I will be pleased to include references to these sites in the next Annual Report if members can let me know the URLs.

TREASURER'S REPORT

INCOME

Membership fees

In 1994, only 296 members paid their annual membership fee. Even this was better than in 1993 when only 236 members paid. It is worrying that more than 150 members have not paid. Whether the fault has been ESVD organisation or individual members this cannot continue. You will all have noted that in 1995, the payment form was sent out in January and a reminder in May. There is no more excuse!

In 1994, we began deleting members who have not paid for more than two years. In 1995 we have deleted at the end of June those members who have not paid for 1994 (34). If members have not paid their 1995 fee by the end of October, they will be automatically deleted too. You have been warned!

Veterinary Dermatology

The money collected this year (XEU 9268) is to pay Elsevier in 1995 (for Veterinary Dermatology Volume 5 -[1994 issues]). Because of the new fee structure, which now includes the subscription to Veterinary Dermatology, we have to pay for more copies of the journal and the cost will be about XEU 14000. This is the reason that members must pay their fee on a regular basis. We cannot support non paying members for long.

EXPENSES

Meeting and Travel Expenses:

These expenses represent three ESVD Board meeting: Paris (January 1994), Bordeaux (June 1994) and Paris (November 1994). The total is XEU 5546 in 1994 and was XEU 5306 in 1993.

Veterinary Dermatology:

In 1994, the cost of Veterinary Dermatology was low because only about 200 members paid for it in 1993.

Bank Charges:

This budgetary item is a little bit lower than in 1993. I remind you that we pay approximately XEU 7 for each Eurocheque deposited.

ESVD publications

This year, we have printed a new Constitution which was sent to all members. The 1994 Annual report was mailed in December and would be paid in 1995.

Bordeaux meeting

We lost some money during this congress but it was not so much, particularly considering that it was such a wonderful meeting. I remind you that we had only 200 delegates, a disappointing number. With only 25 more the Congress would not have lost money. Let us hope that Barcelona is better attended !!!

Barcelona meeting

This money is only an advance for the local organizers. They will have to reimburse this money (it is not real expenditure).

US Bank account

The expenditures on the US bank account represent reimbursement of US speakers from Bordeaux meeting.

Many thanks to Thierry OLIVRY who is doing a great job there.

GENERAL COMMENTS

The profit for the year is XEU 9314 = XEU 3894 + XEU 5420 (Barcelona). This is quite healthy. Note that the annual fees have been covered the expenditures and even the loss of Bordeaux. However, we must be careful of our expenditure because next year, 1995, the cost of Veterinary Dermatology will be much higher.

The healthy financial situation makes it possible to hold the 1995 (and even the 1996) subscription to the 1994 price, and furthermore, make workshops and annual congress a reasonable price for members.

1994 DERMATOLOGIC REFERENCES

The references which are detailed below are all from journals published in 1994. The vast majority of the cited literature is clinically orientated and is drawn from veterinary literature, in particular the Journal of the American Animal Hospital Association, Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association, Veterinary Record, Journal of Small Animal Practice, American Journal of Veterinary Research and, of course, Veterinary Dermatology. Some citations are drawn from "human" journals, particularly British Journal of Dermatology, Journal of the American Academy of Dermatology and the Journal of Investigative Dermatology.

It is noteworthy that of the literature cited below twenty five percent was authored, or part authored, by members of the European Society of Veterinary Dermatology. This remarkable figure is testament to the clinical and research activity of members and to their diligence in reporting the results to colleagues and clinicians.
