President's Remarks

Dermatology, ESVD and the new millenium

The last decades have seen a real progress in the field of Veterinary Dermatology. I remember when I was a student (not so long ago but still close to twenty years ...), we were learning about derm parasitology, a little about pyoderma, and ... that was all. In the eighties and nineties, there has been huge progress with a large amount of new knowledge, new affections, new treatments. When I used to go to the school library, I was almost able to read all the new articles about dermatology in one day. Now, it would be a 24h and seven days job to read whatever is published in this field without being sure that I covered it all.

I think it is important to take some time to sit down and think over deeply about what we have learned, to ask ourselves: "why?" or "how?" or "is it really true?". For example, auto-immune diseases are being reclassified, atopic dermatitis looks completely different in its understanding and approach, some symptoms of hypothyroidism that we thought obvious are totally revisited.

Of course, there will be more and more knowledge but I do think that it is important to be as sure as possible of what we are trying to teach to students or colleagues, to show them a methodology (how to deal with a case) rather than showing them the last disease found in a particular animal.

ESVD is there to fulfil these criteria:

- workshops are made to go more deeply into special topics
  - ESVD-ECVD congresses are made to show to general practitioners what dermatology may be (continuing education programme) and to give some information on the latest findings (specialised programme),
- ESVD is there to open minds not only to knowledge but also to reflection in order to "understand a case" before making a diagnosis (i.e. in atopic dermatitis, we must look at everything before doing intradermal skin testing: pyoderma, Malassezia dermatitis, fleas, elimination diet, hair coat care).

ESVD is there to help practitioners to increase their knowledge about dermatology and to offer them the opportunity to think about a good differential, to choose the complementary examinations following this differential, to be able to interpret and criticise their findings, to go as far as they can in the diagnosis in order to choose the right treatment for the disease, the dog and the owner. In one word: to make them curious.

ESVD is also there to help people with a special interest in vet dermatology to go deeper in their knowledge, to open discussions, to make these people meet each other, in order to progress all together.

I hope that ESVD will continue to adapt itself to these changes in order to offer its members the opportunity to increase their own knowledge, to help them to be happy when dealing with dermatological problems and to be proud to see the results of their work when a happy owner comes back with his dog or cat cured.

Publications

This Annual Report is in all very similar to the last one, and, as last year, I am thankful to the Board members, who provided me with the material published in this issue. I am also very grateful to Thierry Olivry for allowing me to publish his wonderful references list, and to our executive secretary Erna de Kok for sending me an up-to-date membership directory.

Tim Nuttal has done a super job as Editor of the ESVD Bulletin, which allowed us to receive an excellent publication of great interest to our members. The contents of the Bulletin for each issue have been redefined, in order to fully transform it into a means of communication with and between ESVD members. Please remember that the Bulletin editor is happy to receive any comments, reports of events, questions, letters and observations which you would like published.

Veterinary Dermatology, the official journal of the ESVD, ECVD and AAVD celebrated its 10th Anniversary in 1999. In the year 2000 for the first time a supplement to the journal will be published in August, which will come free of charge to all subscribers, in addition to the normal four issues. It will contain abstracts of the scientific papers presented at WCVD4. The Editors also plan to increase the size of the journal next year to shorten the period between paper submission and publication. Short Communications (defined in the Instructions for Authors) are encouraged, as these can normally be reviewed and published more rapidly.

An important development is that the Journal is now also available on-line. Details are provided at the web site: <http://www.blackwell-science.com/vde>.

At the end of 2000 David Lloyd will retire as Editor-in-chief and the Editorial Board has approved the appointment of Ian Mason to succeed him. We are all very grateful to David for his skilled and tireless work and hope Ian will find this new task rewarding and enjoyable. Ross Bond and Karen Moriello remain as European and American co-editors respectively.

Minutes of the 16th AGM of the ESVD

Held in Marina Congress Center in Helsinki on Friday 13th August.

1. President's address

The AGM was opened by Dominique Heripret who thanked Leena Saijonmaa-Kouloumies for the successful organization of the congress in Helsinki. Special thanks was also given to all the Sponsors of the meeting.

2. Treasurer's report

Trevor Whitbread gave his report of the ESVD accounts for the period 01.01.98 to 31.12.98. He analysed the cost of the new secretary and the income of Congresses organization. Around this last aspect a little discussion took place and Hans Koch asked to analyse why some Congresses were more profitable for ESVD than others. It was therefore decided that this matter would be examined in the next Board meeting and the results would be presented in the next agenda.

The Treasurer announced that he had opened a UK bank account and that it would soon be possible to have a credit card account in Euros. Payment by credit card would have a surcharge similar to that of Eurocheques (more or less 10 Euros), but this would be cheaper than a common Bank Transfer. It was also decided that a surcharge of 10 Euros would be required for delayed payments.

3. Membership Secretary's report

Margaret Vroom informed us that we now have 582 members, 5 had been deleted and 22 new members joined in 1999. There are now 191 full members including the following who were elected at the AGM:

- Jaume Altimura Palau, Spain
- Benoit Coppé, France
- Boel Engen, Norway
- Ivan Fileccia, Italy
- Bernard Mignon, Belgium
- Illan Skorinsky, Israel
- Karin Taglinger, United Kingdom
- Gila Zur, USA

4. Publication Committee's report

Chiara Noli thanked the resigning editor of the ESVD Bulletin, Chris Chesney for his work and gave an encouragement to the new editor, Tim Nuttal. She also thanked Ian Mason for his work as past co-editor of Veterinary Dermatology and welcomed the new European co-editor, Ross Bond. New guidelines for optimizing the publication of the Bulletin and of the Annual report were produced. The Bulletin will be published twice a year (April, November) and the Annual Report in June. Finally, Chiara Noli asked the members to check their address in the Annual Report and send any change to Margreet Vroom.

5. Further Education Committee's report

Zeineb Alhaidari informed the members about the planned Esvd Workshops. She gave a reminder about the one in Italy for October 99 on Therapeutics. Then she presented the Immunodermatology course she had organized for March 23/26th 2000 in France at Saint Paul de Vence. In 2001 a Dermatopathology course will be planned in London with David Lloyd as local organizer and in the same year Feline Dermatology in Netherlands and Oncology in France will be organized.

6. Research Committee's report and the Nomination of the ESVD Research Grant

Chiara Noli reported that three applications had been received for the Grant. They were graded by the Award Committee and by a narrow margin it was decided to assign the award to Thierry Olivry and Hilary Jackson with a project of research on "Ulcerative dermatitis and dermatomyositis in the Shetland Sheepdog and Collie: an immune pathological and Immunohistochemical Comparison." The Board congratulated the winners.

7. Future meetings and workshops

It was announced that the next AGM would take place during the BVDSG Autumn Meeting on 7th-8th October 2000 in Harrogate. ESVD will not organize this meeting but members were encouraged to take part in this event in Europe and in the 4th World Congress of Veterinary Dermatology in San Francisco. In 2001 Flemming Kristensen will be the local organizer of the annual ESVD Congress in Copenhagen. For 2002 Nice was chosen and for 2003 Mallorca was proposed.

8. Change of the ESVD Constitution

A letter was sent to 183 Full members in January 1999 asking them to vote with a cross on "yes" or "no" (according to their choice) on 4 proposals for the change to the ESVD constitution. The deadline for returning the postal vote form was the 15 th of March 1999. Dr. Antonella Vercelli was in charge of collecting the answers. She received 108 vote forms back. Dr. Lloyd abstained completely from voting considering the way of voting with a cross unclear for some of the European Countries. We took into account this problem for next postal vote and we sent back 8 forms asking for confirmation of their choices. Three vote forms were not included because the members cancelled yes or no instead of putting a cross on it (making their choice equivocal). As a result 104 vote forms were examined:

Proposal n. 1 was divided into two parts:

1) A three year term will be adopted for officers

This was approved by 96 members, 5 didn't approve, and 3 abstained.

2) This will be retrospective for the actual board

This was approved by 87 members, 12 didn't approve and 5 abstained.

Proposal n. 2 was divided into two parts:

1) The position of Vice President should be renamed Research and Publication Secretary

This was approved by 89 members, 12 didn't approve and 3 abstained.

2) The Board will be reduced by one member so that it will comprise: President, Treasurer, Secretary, Research and Publications Secretary, Further Education Secretary and Past President. Thus the ESVD will be able to hire a part time secretary

This was approved by 96 members, 7 didn't approve and 1 abstained.

Proposal n. 3:

Officers (except the President) may succeed themselves in office without limitation, subject to election.

This was approved by 68 members, 32 didn't approve and 4 abstained.

Proposal 4 was divided into two parts:

1) No change in membership status

This was approved by 72 members, 19 didn't approve and 13 abstained

2) The categories of Full and Associated Member should be merged.

59 members didn't approve, 33 approved and 12 abstained

The conclusions of this postal vote were the following:

- 1) Officers would be elected for three years instead of two.
- 2) The position of VicePresident will be renamed Research and Publications Secretary.
- 3) The Board will be reduced by one member.
- 4) The Board will hire a part time secretary.
- 5) The distinction between Full Membership and Associate Membership will be kept.

Dominique Heripret said that with the help of a lawyer these variations will be made to the ESVD Constitution, and that a copy of the constitution will be sent to every member as soon as it is ready. The present Board will not be reduced by one member and it will last for three years.

9. Any other business

There was no other business.

10. Date and time of the Next Meeting

The next Annual General Meeting of the ESVD will be held in Harrogate on 7th October 2000, in conjunction with the Autumn Meeting of the BVDSG.

11. Closing remarks by the ESVD President

The AGM was approved by the members present and Dominique Heripret thanked once moore Leena Saijonmaa - Kouloumies for the successful Congress and organization and closed the meeting with the word "KIITOS" which means "thank you" in Finnish.

Antonella VERCELLI
Secretary

INCOME

• Membership fee

In 1999, ESVD counted 6 free members (4 Honorary, 2 Retired), 554 paying members. 346 were paying in Euro, 21 in USD, 62 in FRF, 125 UK pounds sterling.

A membership renewal was sent for the first time in January and then a reminder in September. We deleted 45 members because of failure to send payment.

The numbers of members paying in French francs is decreasing and we have closed the French franc account and from the beginning of the year 2000 we will have the facility to pay by visa.

- Investment Account

Interest rates are low throughout Europe and now cover about half bank charges.

- Annual congress

The profit from the Maastricht Annual Congress far exceeded expectations and this has been shared equally between ESVD and ECVD.

- Other income

Workshops are usually planned to break even but a small profit was made on the Equine and Canine Workshops, which were held in 1998.

EXPENSES

- Meeting-Travel expenses

We had 3 board meetings: 2 in Paris and one in Helsinki. Expenses are more than 1998 but less than 1996 and 1997.

- Veterinary Dermatology

As you know cost of Veterinary Dermatology is increasing and is up 7.9% over 1998.

- Bank charges

Charges are decreasing because of the use of national currency accounts. The visa facility, which so many members requested and have welcomed, will cost slightly more than national currency accounts.

- Secretary – mailing

1999 saw the appointment of a paid secretary to help take care of the increasing amount of administration that such a large European society requires. This has increased the costs in this first year but we feel that this has been a great success.

- ESVD publications

Almost 15% of our turnover is for the ESVD bulletin and annual report. This is a very expensive process but one that is essential to keep members informed.

- ECVD

ESVD board and ECVD board had a joint meeting in Helsinki. Discussed in particular arrangements for next year's congress in Copenhagen.

- Congress organisation

Because of world congress there is no congress to organise for the year 2000. The next congress will be in Copenhagen in 2001 and in 2002 will be in Nice, but congresses are now requiring start up expenses at least 2 years in advance.

- ESVD Grant

The grant for 1999 was awarded to Thierry Olivry. This has been paid. In addition, additional monies from previous years have been paid to Cathy Curtis and also the ESVD grant for 1998 to the research group in Italy.

- US Bank account

We still maintain a modest sum in the US bank account and we still have 21 members still wishing to pay in USD. We use this account principally for paying expenses to speakers who live in America. The expenses indicated in the accounts are for that purpose and also include some expenses for 1998. Thanks again to Thierry Olivry for organising this so well for us.

- UK Bank account

Just under 20% of payment has been made into this account which simply reflects the relatively large number of UK members.

GENERAL COMMENTS

The financial situation for the society appears to be very healthy. For a number of reasons outlined above there have been increased costs this year and this has been offset by the increase in fees with a final balance very similar to the previous year. However, this balance is considerably less than the annual expenditure and does include a substantial profit from the Maastricht Congress. We cannot, however, rely on profits from congress and there will of course be no congress in the year 2000. We are therefore constantly monitoring costs.

The largest expense is Veterinary Dermatology and to reduce losses in this area we are bringing in measures in the year 2000 so that members who do not pay promptly do not receive free copies of Veterinary Dermatology.

Secretarial costs have increased but in order to organise such a large society with members from many countries throughout the world this has become an essential expense.
